SCHOOL BOARD APPROVES DEBT AMOUNT FOR NOVEMBER REFERENDUM

Unionville High School Project cost set at $62.5 million dollars

UNIONVILLE, Pennsylvania, September 10, 2007 – At the school board work session on September 10, 2007, school board members voted 9-0 to approve the Unionville High School project debt allowance of $62.5 million dollars on a project with a total cost of $62.7 million dollars.

The project includes renovation and additions to classrooms, athletic areas, and auditorium as well as new administrative suites.

The community will decide on November 6 whether they will authorize the district to spend no more than the $62.5 million dollars in a referendum required by Pennsylvania Act 1 of 2006.

More information on the project and financing can be found at www.ucfsd.org.
