FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

BOARD APPOINTS HILLENDALE ELEMENTARY PRINCIPAL

Steve Dissinger appointed Principal

UNIONVILLE, Pennsylvania, April 16, 2007 — The Unionville-Chadds Ford School District Board of Directors named Steve Dissinger as the new Principal of Hillendale Elementary School. Mr. Dissinger's appointment will become effective July 1, 2007.

Serving the school district for the last twenty years at Charles F. Patton Middle School, Mr. Dissinger has distinguished himself as a member of numerous strategic planning and academic committees and earned a Staff Recognition Award in 2003. He has been a teacher, team leader, and for the last seven years, the Dean of Students. Mr. Dissinger regularly presents at state and national conferences on the subjects of science, technology, and middle school teaming. Mr. Dissinger hails from rural Lancaster County and funded part of his college education by working on a dairy farm.

Mr. Dissinger, a true Nittany Lion, earned his Bachelor of Science degree in Elementary Education, Masters of Education degree in Instructional Systems, and Principal certification from Pennsylvania State University.
