FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

BOARD APPOINTS DIRECTOR OF SECONDARY EDUCATION

John Sanville appointed Director of Secondary Education

UNIONVILLE, Pennsylvania, October 15, 2007 -- The Unionville-Chadds Ford School District Board of Directors named John Sanville as the new Director of Secondary Education.

Mr. Sanville's appointment will become effective after his release from his current employment.

John comes to UCFSD from the Marple Newtown School District where he has served as principal for the last three years at Marple Newtown High School. John has been very active as a school leader in curriculum development, facility management, and staff development as well as possessing a strong knowledge for Technology and budget topics. Prior to his last position held, Mr. Sanville was a seventh grade Social Studies teacher at Hayfield Secondary School in Fairfax, Virginia, where he taught for nine years. John then moved on to become a Guidance Counselor at Chancellor Middle School in Fredericksburg, Virginia before a promotion to Assistant Principal at Chancellor.

John's many experiences will allow him to handle diverse situations and needs. His accomplishments include professional training in the Pennsylvania Value Added Assessment System, PSSA Assessments Anchors, College Board Forums and workshops in advanced placement, principal mentorship, safe schools, and crisis management.

Mr. Sanville received his Bachelor of Arts degree in Education from The George Washington University. John also received his Masters degree in School Counseling from Virginia Tech and is currently enrolled in a doctoral program at the University of Virginia.
