

Transition to Adulthood

(Transition Plan is Not Just a Form)

Chesco LIFE is hosting a FREE Parent/Professional Workshop for Chester County Residents

During this workshop, participants will:

1. Discuss the importance of having a vision to guide transition planning
2. Describe the areas to consider when transition planning
3. List resources to support successful transition outcomes

Our Presenter: Diane Perry has twenty years of education, advocacy and family leadership under her belt. She is the Eastern Parent Advisor for the PEAL Center in Philadelphia. In addition to her work at PEAL, Diane serves as Chair of the State Special Education Advisory Panel. Diane's son David, 25, received special education services. He is currently attending college, working part time, and being mentored with Self Advocates United as 1 (SAU1).
